Supreme Court, has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband by Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia.
The couple were married in this city about a year ago. Mrs. Looze will at once resume her maiden name.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of Tuesday, January 8, 1907, contains the following with reference to the divorce:

"Mrs. J. Pearson Looze was granted an absolute divorce yesterday by Court of Common Pleas, No. 5, on statutory grounds. Her husband, J. Pearson Looze, lives at the Hotel Majestic, and is connected with the National Biscuit Company. He is a member of the Southern Club."

Totty—Roberts.

John W. Totty and Miss Virelle M.
Roberts, a popular young couple, were united in marriage Thursday evening last at the home of James T. Ashby, at Swift Creek. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Robinson, of Ettrick. The bridal attendants were N. W. Farley, with Miss Ollie Ashby, and C. V. Farley, with Miss Annie Bowles.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Roberts, of McKenney, Va. The groom is a valued employee of the Chesterfield Manufacturing Company.

Smith—Ashby.

Miss Lizzie Ashby, of Wytheville, and Bert Foster Smith, of Mr. W. Irving Smith, of this city, were married in North Carolina several days ago. Mr.
Smith is employed on the Tidewater Rail-rents a few days ago telling of the marriage.

Young Men Thrown Out.

A pair of horses attached to a buggy in which were seated Messrs. Claude Rogerson and Samuel Taylor ran away on Franklin Street yesterday afternoon, and both men were thrown from the buggy. Taylor escaped unhurt, but Rogerson was painfully hurt about the head. He was taken to the Home for the Sick and his injuries attended to.
The horses ran into the store of E. A.
Hartley & Bro.

F. Clifford Hobbs, who for the past several years has been connected with the United States Railway Mail Service, has resigned that position to become storekeeper in the United States Customs Service in this city.

James Young, a popular young citi-

WILL HAVE BOUT HERE NEXT WEEK

If there comes no hitch in the arrangements "Kid" Coplin and George Herbert will land in the ring against each other some time early next week. W. E. Cav-ley, who trained Harlem Murphy for his fight with Young Corbett, has come down to train Herbert, and will take him somewhere in the country to-morrow morning.

The final agreements will be made at 12 o'clock to-morrow morning between J. M. MacFarlan, the backer of Herbert, and the backers of Coplin. The fight will be for a $1,000 purse, the winner to take all, and a forfeit of $300 will be put up by both sides. The bout will be a fight to the finish, and it is probable that some inside expert will come down from Philadelphia to act as referee.

Both of the young fighters expect to go into training at once, and both are anxious for the match. The scene of the prospective battle has already been arranged.
It is not very far from Richmond, and it will be but a short ride. Car facilities will be arranged by those who are behind the fight. The size of the purse forms a big incentive for the men to make a tryout against each other, though there will be no division of the money. It is confidently expected that the fight will be pulled off, and all the local sporting fraternity are anxious to see the two men line up against each other once more. Much money has already been wagered on the result, and there will be much more laid on each of the men.

MAY REORGANIZE STAUNTON SHOW

Present Effects to Be Sold to Satisfy Execution in Favor of Valley Bank.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STAUNTON, VA., January 12.—At the last meeting of the stockholders of the Staunton Horse Show Association, the stockholders voted down a proposition to pay a stock assessment to defray the indebtedness of the corporation, and the entire property of the corporations, consisting of all the stalls, grandstand and fencing, has been levied on by the sheriff and advertised for sale to satisfy an execution in favor of the National Valley Bank, which holds a note for $1,500, given by the association to defray certain indebtedness. The note is endorsed by a dozen of prominent gentlemen. A proposition is now being considered to buy in the old property, and reorganize the association.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., January 12.—Today's session of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Judge Edmund Waddill presiding, was taken up in hearing testimony in the case of the Alexandria National Bank, of this city, against the W. C. Bates Company, of Boston, Mass., a suit in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $7,500, that being the amount of a draft paid by the bank which was drawn by A. H. Bardine, an alleged agent of the company. The transaction occurred over a year ago.

In the declaration filed the bank alleges that it cashed the draft for Bardine as agent for the Bates Company, and it is set forth that several drafts drawn by Bardine prior to the one in litigation were honored by the Bates Company. The Bates Company denies that he was their agent when he drew the draft in contention.

The Bates Company was represented by Attorney Samuel G. Brent, and Attorney C. C. Carlin represented the bank.
The case commenced yesterday morning and a large number of witnesses were examined. The case was postponed until Monday.

Oppose Annexation.

The proposed annexation of the little villages of Del Ray and St. Elmo, Alexandria county, north of the city's limits, by the city, is being bitterly opposed by the residents of Alexandria county.

Last evening a meeting of the Citizens' Improvement Association of the county, speeches were made against such a procedure, and a legislative committee was appointed to keep the association informed on any move along these lines made by the city. It is stated that the majority of the members of the City Council favor annexing that part of the county, which is now rapidly forging ahead.

A citizen of the county stated this morning that the residents of the county would have the entire county incorporated in the event the city proposed to take in that part of the county in order to forestall such an occurrence.

Postpone Hospital Case.

The case of the Winchester Memorial Hospital, of Winchester, Va., against the Board of Handley, trustees, which was to have been argued on a demurrer filed by the defendant in the Circuit Court for this city, this morning, has been postponed.

Mrs. Maria Lee, aged sixty years, wife of Albert Lee, died last evening at her home, No. 308 North Fayette Street. Her husband and three children survive her.

Charles Gaskins, colored, was seriously injured this morning by several tons of fertilizer falling on him while at work at the plant of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company.

The funeral of Mrs. Paul B. Evans, whose death occurred yesterday morning, will take place at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at her residence, No. 420 South Henry Street. Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

THINK VETERAN
WAS MURDERED

RALEIGH, N. C., January 12.—Milton Bunnell, a Confederate veteran, was found dead by the side of the track of the Aberdeen and Asheboro Railroad, near Star, N. C., where a freight train had run over him during the night. One leg and one arm were severed and the body was cut and bruised in numerous places. The peculiar appearance of wounds on the head and neck led to an investigation by the coroner. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased had been killed with an ax or some other sharp implement, and the body placed on the railroad track to conceal the crime.

Milton Bunnell was seen changing money in Star Thursday, and when the dead body was found some $40, which was in a wallet, was missing, while $470 was found sewed up in the man's drawers. After the verdict of the coroner's jury a bloody ax was found near the place of the murder, and bloodstains showed that the body had first been placed on a straight line of track and then dragged three hundred yards to a curve, where it could not be seen by the engineer of the train. Murder with robbery as the motive is now understood to be the cause.

CAN GET SITE FOR RICHMOND BUILDING

Governor of Exhibits So Tells Messrs. Dunlop and Cary—Not for Exhibits, However.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., January 12.—As to whether Richmond will be represented by a building at the Jamestown Exposition, it now rests entirely with Richmond. Mr.
R. A. Dunlop, secretary of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Hunsdon Cary, of the Richmond Council, representing the Chamber of Commerce and Council, arrived here to-night, and at a conference with Mr. T. S. Southgate, governor of exhibits of the exposition, were successful in obtaining the assurance that a site could be had for a Richmond building.

The gentlemen were not here in an executive capacity, but "came to get information," as Mr. Dunlop put it.
"Should a Richmond building be erected," said Mr. Dunlop, "it will not be an exhibit building, but a structure in the nature of a reception building, similar to the one which Baltimore is contemplating putting up at the exposition."

Messrs. Cary and Dunlop will report in Richmond on the information that they got here. They will visit the exposition grounds before returning to Richmond. Several sites are available for the Richmond building.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Third Annual Report Now Ready for Distribution by Secretary.

The third annual report of the Virginia State Farmers' Institute, which is now ready for distribution from the office of the secretary, is undoubtedly the most interesting report the institute has ever sent out.
The report covers 240 printed pages, and is one of the most complete symposiums on Virginia agriculture that has ever been published.

It does, the complete proceedings of the third annual session of the State Farmers' Institute, held in Roanoke July 10th, 11th and 12th. Many of the speakers are regarded as the best living authorities on their special subjects, and, as the addresses were of a practical nature, the value of the fund of information made available to Virginia farmers through this report is difficult to estimate correctly.

o'clock at Blacksburg, S. C., where he was at work in the freight yards of the BUREAU TO FURNISH THEM INFORMATION

T. P. A. to Establish One Here for Jamestown
Visitors.

Richmond is to have a bureau of information during the Jamestown Exposition, and it will be under the auspices of the T. P. A., which body at a special meeting held last night, adopted a resolution for such an establishment.

The details of the scheme have not yet been worked out, but the work will be pressed with all reasonable speed.

The matter has been under advisement by the post for some months, and at a recent meeting was referred to a committee composed of the following gentlemen:

Joseph Wallerstein, chairman; W. K.
Bache, B. H. Randolph, H. F. Smith and E. D. Quarles.

This committee reported last night, and a resolution was adopted determining to establish a bureau here for the information of travelers during the exposition year, and the matter was referred back to the same committee to work out the details.

Another called meeting will be held shortly to hear another report from the committee, after which the bureau will be quickly established.

Past A members are delighted at the gains recently made in the order in Virginia.

At the last convention a prize of $250 was offered to the developer in class B making the largest gains in members during the year.

A letter has been received from national headquarters containing the following figures:

New members received: From Virginia, 207; Texas, 122; Tennessee, 85. Membership of these States, December 31st:
